

City of San Diego

Hazardous Waste Disposal Citywide Contract Renewal

Routine Disposal

Tank Cleaning

Chemical Releases

Abandoned Waste

Routine Disposal and Emergency Response

Why Do We Generate Hazardous Waste?

Some Routine Activities That Generate Haz Waste

- Wastewater Odor Control – Carbon
- Street Road Work - Asphalt Tool Cleaning
- Water/Wastewater Lab Analysis
- Chemical Tank Cleanings
- Maintenance Activities
- Building/Office Lighting Replacement
- Annual Underground Tank Recertification
- Printing Processes

Emergency Activities That Generate Haz Waste

- Abandoned Hazardous Waste – City Property & Rights-of-Way
- Equipment Mechanical Failure – Chemical Releases

Outcome of Doing Routine Work &
Addressing Emergencies

RFB Process

- Eight Bids Received June 27, 2008
- City Panel Reviewed- ESD, Fire, Public Utilities
 - Environmental Compliance Review Criteria
 - Efficient & Effective Operational Procedures
 - Adequate Safety Procedures
 - Employee Training & Qualifications
 - Equipment Availability
 - Waste Disposal Options Per Waste Type
 - Disposal & Recycling Facilities Compliance Records

RFB Process

- Purchasing Department Evaluated:
 - Experience Requirements
 - Licenses and Insurance
 - Bid Pricing
 - Reference Recommendations
- Award to Lowest, Responsible Bidder:
 Ocean Blue Environmental Inc.
- Contract Started November 1, 2008
 - Four 1 Year Renewal Options

Contract Expenditures - Citywide

Contract Period 11/1/2008 – 10/31/2009

- Emergency Services $ 69,000
- Non-Emergency Services $ 360,000
- Total Expended, 1st Year $ 429,000
-

Contract Period 11/12009 – 10/31/2010

- Emergency Services $ 127,000
- Non-Emergency Services $ 211,000
- Total Expended, 2nd Year $ 338,000

City of San Diego

For More Information

Contract Questions

Bill Broderick 619.236.6653

Purchasing and Contracting Department

Hazardous Waste Management Questions

Cheryl Lester 858.492.5004

Environmental Services Department

